@Of those who graduated.

*The Fall 2015 entering cohort is the first to graduate after the MCFT program received COAMFTE-accreditation.

In the state of Illinois, Associate Marriage and Family Therapists were not eligible to sit for the AMFTRB licensing exam until they have completed their clinical hours for licensure which is no sooner than two years after their degree has been conferred. This restriction was just recently (June 2018) updated and now students are eligible. To date, no graduates have sat for the licensing exam.

^To date, no graduates have reported sitting for the licensing exam.
