| Email requests to withdraw from a                     course must be submitted to your                     Department Chair or Program                     Director via your Adler email                     account no later than 11:59 p.m.                     CST on the date indicated. If                     approved, your Department Chair                     or Program Director will                     forwarded the email to the Office                     of the Registrar for processing.                     Students cannot withdraw from a                     course or exam with a W grade if                     the course has already ended or if                     the exam submission date has                     passed. Students who wish to                     withdraw from a course after this                     date will receive a WF grade (a                     WF grade factors into the GPA as                     an F). If you wish to withdraw                     from all of your courses, you must                     submit a Student Withdrawal form                     to withdraw completely from the                     University or a Leave of Absence                     form to take a leave from your                     program. Please see both forms                     for additional information and                     policies. The Student Withdrawal                     form and Leave of Absence form                     are located on the Registrar page                     on Adler Connect. |  |  |                          |
