

AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT DOCUMENT

To make this process understandable we will go over how to complete this part of the process and why.

International Students on an F-1 visa are only eligible to work on campus, part-time, however, due to a limited number of positions; students should not rely on for this for living expenses. Keep in mind students can have more than one sponsor. The amount of financial support to be met is $63,000.00 US dollars for Masters level students and $65,000.00 US dollars for Doctoral level students.

International Students are ineligible to receive federal financial aid (assistance), however there are a couple of alternatives to keep in mind. Students are encouraged to seek private funding/scholarships from your home country. Adler University also offers a limited number of institutional scholarships in which international students are eligible to apply for. Please visit www.adler.edu for more information or contact the admissions office.

Sponsors - Can be a parent, friend, relative, or self and you can have more than one sponsor. If you do have more than one sponsor, there are two ways to provide an affidavit of support;

- Your sponsor can sign the Affidavit of Support document provided by Adler University, or
- Your sponsor can write a letter stating the same information the document provides.

Once you have one of the two forms mentioned above, the "Affidavit of Support" documents, you will still need an original bank statement, along with the letter of translation by bank management. Each document supports the other; three documents total.

If you would like to see an example letter to show what it should contain, please send an email request. Whichever way you decide to provide this document, both you and your sponsor(s) original signature(s) are required.

Bank Statements – Must be an original letter on bank letterhead with a current original bank statement. The bank statement should be in the currency of their sponsor(s) country, and a letter by bank management translating the amount in U.S. dollars and signed. Send the bank statement and letter with the Affidavit of Support document.

Additional Financial Information – This is an area on the second page of the "Affidavit of Support" document. If while attending Adler University you will be staying free of charge with friends or relatives for at least your first year of study, the responsible person must sign this statement. This area can only be signed by a U.S. citizen and provides an understood amount of $19,570.00 U.S. dollars for living expenses that will be covered by this person/sponsor.

There are other areas on Adler University's "Affidavit of Support" document that apply to a small percentage of international students, if you have further questions related to these areas let me know.

This document is a contract between the student, DHS, and Adler University. This documentation is to provide the United States Department of Homeland Security and United States Citizenship Immigration Services and Adler University that you will have enough funds to cover all expenses for 12 months. Please see the breakdown of these expenses listed below:

	Masters Students	Doctorate Students
Tuition & Fees	$41,885	$43,885
Books & Supplies	$ 1,545	$ 1,545
Housing & Food	$19,570	$19,570
Total for 12 months	$63,000 USD	$65,000 USD
Extra expense for Spouse	$ 6,000	$ 6,000
Extra expense for each child	$ 4,000	$ 4,000

The total costs are an estimate. Actual expenses will vary greatly according to the spending habits of the individual. It is essential that you have sufficient funds to support yourself and any dependents during your entire academic program. Law limits work opportunities for international students in the U.S. Do not plan to work to pay for your college expenses.
