

Military Tuition Assistance

Each branch of the US Military offers a Tuition Assistance (TA) program to Active and/or Reserve Military Service members. TA can cover up to $250 per credit hour, not to exceed the amount per Military Fiscal Year based on branch of service. For more information on TA, including a breakdown of Tuition Assistance dollar amounts by branch: Military Tuition Assistance \(TA\) Overview | Military.com

Applying for Military Tuition Assistance

1. If you are a military service member planning to use your education benefits to fund your studies, you should contact your Education Services Officer (ESO) to get approval and assistance with the necessary procedures before enrolling.
2. Complete the correct enrollment form associated with your branch of the US Military for approval by your Military Education Officer.
3. Submit the APPROVED TA form to Adler University's Student Accounts Office.

Note: Army TA users will need to complete the TA process through the Go Army Ed website:

<https://www.goarmy.com>.

If you have questions about using your Military tuition assistance benefits at Adler University, please reach out to: JoAnn Spees, Bursar jspees@adler.edu.
